Pre-approval	$50,000	$60,000
Funding gap		$10,000 left on the table

You are fundable right now at $50,000. You are leaving $10,000 on the table by not fixing a few things first. The good news is that the biggest fixes are the fastest.

Breakdown by Category

Personal cards

ACCOUNT	BUREAU	STATUS	BALANCE	LIMIT	UTILIZATION
TEST CARD	TransUnion, Experian, Equifax	MONITOR	$4,500	$10,000	45%
AMEX PLATINUM (NPSL)	Experian	MONITOR	$5,200	-

Overall utilization: 45% of $10,000 in available credit.

Business accounts

No business entity on file. You are leaving a full suite of business funding off the table. Forming an LLC is fast and most states let you do it online.

What Is Costing You Money

Each item below is holding your number down. Fix them in this order.

1

Overall utilization under 10%

Across all your credit cards, you are using 45% of your available credit. That is $4,500 in balances against $10,000 in limits.

For the best scores and highest funding amounts, you want to be under 10% total.

Get your total balances down to about $1,000. The lower your utilization, the higher your pre-approval amount and the better your approval odds.

What Does Not Affect Your Funding

None of these is what your funding decision turns on. They are cleanup and upkeep - the note under each one says what, if anything, to do about it.

Remove or reduce AU card utilization

You are listed as an authorized user on a MOM CARD card, and it is at 80% utilization. You are not responsible for this debt - it is someone else's account.

Even though this is not your debt, it still counts against your credit utilization.

Ask the main cardholder to pay it down, or call MOM CARD and ask to be removed from the card.
